

News

Successfull lauch of MOMENT

Klagenfurt, Oct. 2007

Based on the impressive success with MOCA in the healthcare area ilogs has launched a new product for field workers in industry. MOMENT is an highly configurable out-of-the-box workforce management system with seamless integration of mobile workers.

Winner of Constantinus Award - MOCA named Best IT solution 2007

Salzburg, June 2007

ilogs is the first enterprise gaining a double victory at the Constantinus Award (<http://www.constantinus.net/award/>), Austrians most prestigious IT Award, as "Best Overall IT solution" with MOCA (Mobile Care) under 138 submitted projects and as "Young company of the Year". The Constantinus Award stands for highest quality and innovation.

The jury consisted of prominent personalities and experts in Business and IT. The jury was led by Christian Rupp, the Austrian e-Government Executive Secretary."

Further 3000 MOCA users

St. Poelten/Salzburg, March 2007

With the medico-social organizations Hilfswerk Niederösterreich und Hilfswerk Salzburg, ilogs wins two further large organizations for the award winning industry solution MOCA (mobile Care). Reasons for MOCA were its modern architecture, its functionality and flexibility as well as existing reference projects clearly.

Mobile Emergency System MEDEA

Dec. 2006

The most modern mobile emergency documentation system MEDEA was successfully introduced at the LKH-Univ. Klinikum Graz. MEDEA includes the integration of the health card (e-card) as well as the integration of the emergency control center of Graz. The system was developed together with the university of applied sciences in Klagenfurt.

ilogs extends its mobile computing competence
May 2006

Stefan Plattner is with immediate effect new member of the ilogs team. He works in the division Location Bases Services (LBS). The mobile navigation solution GPSdash, realized from Mr. Plattner, was recently awarded with the "Best Software Awards Finalist" title of the american PocketPC magazine.

MOCA for viennese home care organization WISO

February 2006

The viennese NPO Wiener Sozialdienste ALten- und Pflgeienste GmbH selects the award winning ilogs product MOCA for its more than 700 employees in the home care sector.

Successful partnership with UBS AG
Nov. 2005

ilogs and UBS AG have established a valuable partnership for more than 5 years. This year successful eProcess projects have been released in the following domains: security management (automated certificate management), logistics, securities operations, HW provisioning, SW change management and others.

Research cooperation with the collage of higher education carinthia ilogs starts a cooperation with the collage of higher education carinthia, department of medical information technology. First of all they realize a research project in the area of emergency documentian.

July 2005

Cooperation with CTI-University of Applied Science
June 2005

ilogs and FH Technikum Kärnten (Carinthian Tech Institute - University of Applied Sciences) start a research cooperation in the field of mobile healthcare. Special focus is set on a project in the area of mobile emergency support.

Best e-Business project of Austria

April 2005

ilogs information logistics wins the federal award for the best E-business-project. The carinthian company produced a performance- and time recording system for 900 Home care nurses and assistants

ilogs wins the eBizz Award 2005

March 2005

The Austrian eBizz award 2005 has been given to ilogs for the innovative and state-of-the-art mobile e-government solution project. ilogs' mobile software is an impressive and modern solution plattform with a strong focus on the e-government and healthcare market. As an innovator in the fast growing mobile-employee market ilogs proved the flexible integration of mobile business processes.